

Instruction

School Day

ROP Classes: Travel Hardship

It is recognized that two-thirds (2/3) of the students in the Mendocino Unified School District are transported to school and the average bus run exceeds ninety (90) minutes. It is therefore declared that, due to the unique transportation situation existent in the District, students who ride school transportation to or from ROP classes are considered to have travel hardship and may qualify for a minimum day of 180 minutes.

Legal Reference: Education Code
52326 Minimum day for ROC and programs.