

Instruction

Summer Use of Equipment

District-owned computers may be loaned to staff members for the summer with the approval of the school principal or his/her designee. Normally, such equipment will be checked out only to certificated staff members.

Persons who check out equipment assume liability for damage to the equipment.