Integrated Academic and Vocational Instruction

Strategies for integrating academic and vocational instruction may include, but shall not be limited to:

- 1) Making academic courses more relevant to real life and workplace situations.
- 2) Incorporating more academic skills into vocational courses.
- 3) Using both academic and vocational teachers to enhance academic content in vocational courses.
- 4) giving teachers opportunities to collaborate in aligning the content of their courses so as to demonstrate the relationship between various disciplines.
- 5) Establishing sequences of courses related to various career paths.
- 6) Creating schools within a school, magnet schools, and/or career high schools.
- 7) Developing career clusters and career majors that include a planned program of job training and work experiences.
- 8) Establishing apprenticeships under the direction of a master craftsperson.
- 9) Establishing effective linkages between elementary, secondary, and postsecondary education.
