

Relations with Vendors

No district employee or Governing Board member shall accept personal gifts, commissions or expense-paid trips from individuals or companies selling equipment, vehicles, materials or services required in the operation of the district. Gifts include any gift purchased specifically for an employee which is not generally offered to other buyers.

This policy does not prohibit employees from accepting promotional or advertising items such as calendars, desk pads, notebooks and other office gadgets which are offered by business concerns free to all as part of their public relations programs.

District employees who have a financial conflict of interest with potential vendors shall not participate in evaluating any equipment, vehicles, materials or services of that vendor or its competitors.

(cf. 6161.1 - Selection and Evaluation of Instructional Materials) (cf. 9270 - Conflict of Interest)

This policy does not prohibit the acceptance of materials and/or services which are of use and benefit to the district.

(cf. 3290 - Gifts, Grants and Bequests)
